

I am disturbed that there is consideration to reverse the telephone privacy law. I find those calls a nuisance and an invasion of my privacy as well as usually being ill timed (many times at noon and early afternoon)- affects my health because it interrupts my much needed rest.

I think it is time to give preference to citizen's needs instead of bowing to the interest of businesses whose only concern is making money.